all this excitement!

ONCE IN EACH DECADE the European Grand Prix comes to Britain . . .

In 1964 . . . on July 11th . . . it will be held for the first time at Brands Hatch on an undulating, tortuous road circuit with spectator views and amenities hitherto unparalleled in British motor racing.

For the first time since the early 1950s, the European and British Grand Prix will be organised directly by the Royal Automobile Club. No effort will be spared to ensure the most colourful and significant day's motor racing in the history of the sport in Britain; the meeting will be sponsored by The Daily Mail, in association with The Evening News.

The RAC European Grand Prix itself will be contested by every major team and entrant in Grand Prix World Championship racing . . . Lotus . . . BRM . . . Brabham . . . Ferrari . . . Cooper . . . and others.

Here is the programme:—

Saturday, July 11th.	6.30 a.m.	Gates Open
	11.00 a.m.	20-lap Molyslip Trophy Saloon Car Race
	12.00 a.m.	20-lap Ilford Films' Trophy Grand Touring Car Race
	12.45 p.m.	Lunch interval and display
	2.30 p.m.	RAC EUROPEAN GRAND PRIX over 80 laps
	5.15 p.m.	20-lap Guards Trophy Sports Car Race

Practice takes place on Thursday and Friday, July 9th and 10th, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. For the fastest lap for the RAC EUROPEAN GRAND PRIX on Thursday, the Evening News will present 100 bottles of champagne.
